Hello Fellow Quilters!

So much has happened in October. We had a great meeting in October. There were several new members added to our Guild.

On a sad note, one of our friends and fellow members passed away on Monday October 16, Linda Marean. She had a passion for quilting, teaching and instructing others in sewing, quilting and music. Once a month she would assist in delivering meals to seniors in Anderson County. She particularly enjoyed going to the Senior Center on Fridays and working on special projects. Her most pride and joy was teaching her granddaughter how to sew. Please keep her husband Bill and family in your thoughts and prayers. She touched so many lives in so many ways.

Thank you for your hard work to make our 1st Bazaar a success! We had so many different items for sale, each one was lovely and unique.

We will talk about our December meeting at the next meeting. What do you want to do this year for fun, gift exchange, ugly sweater contest, visit Frankfort and see the lights? What projects do you want to do? Do you have an idea or Christmas items you might share?

Will see you soon at the Quilt Guild meeting.

Stay busy and see you soon.

Joan Beard, President

What do other people make that others do not see?

Birthdays: Pat Miller – 6; Theresa Mahl -11; Emily Raisor – 14; Darlene Terrell – 23.

Regular meeting of the Anderson County Piecemakers Quilt Guild was held on October 2, 2023, at 6:00 pm at the UK Extension Building

Officers Joan Beard, Pat Miller and Shelly Winsor were present.

Joan called the meeting to order, and the inspiration was given by Mattie Spaulding. Seventeen members present. Members who attended the recent quilt show gave their impressions.

Pat Miller gave the treasurer's report, balance $1488.74. County dues have not been paid.

Pat also handed out chocolate gold coins for a fun treat and several membership cards. More will be handed out next month.

Birthdays were recognized, Betty Jo 3rd, Judy Howard 7th and Betty Ann 9th.

Dues are still being collected and are due today.

Next project day is Thursday the 5th. They will be sewing jar openers or your own project.

Homemaker's week is the second week in October. We have been invited to join the Fort Harrod

Homemakers to hike the Bernheim Forest Oct. 13th.

Our bazaar is coming up on Oct 21st from 9 to 3 at the extension building. Donated items should be dropped off the night before after 3pm. Sign up sent around for volunteers. Six tables will be set up with one volunteer per table. Shifts will be from 8 to 11:30 and 11:30 to 4pm. Any unsold items will need to be picked up at 3. Baked goods will be sold as well. Drop items to the extension office before the end of day on Monday the 16th. The volunteer schedule was reviewed.

The items for the fall basket and the Halloween basket were displayed in the back.

Garnetta announced the project for the 2nd Saturday sew, a two-handed potholder. Two coordinating fabrics ½ yard each, Insul Bright will be provided.

Craft Camp /Heritage Skills Camp is October 27-28 in Boyle County. The catalog is available in the office. The next part of the mystery quilt was distributed, and Joan showed how the pieces should be sewn together in strips. Several members showed the progress on their mystery quilt.

Sew and Tell

Garnetta announced that 2nd Saturday Sew Group will be making a baby quilt with 2 1/2” strips.

Linda announced that Friday at 2pm they would be sewing Christmas stockings.

Mary L taught us how to better care for our machines and gave us each a gift bag of cleaning and oiling tools. Roetta is looking for a Juki dealer to service her machine. If anyone knows of one, please let know.

Next month’s program members are Jeanne, Faye, and Judy.

Door prizes.

Meeting ended at 7:30
